HAI Weizhou

海维舟 · Professional CV · Osaka, Japan

Profile

Policy-oriented researcher, English instructor, and admissions adviser. I work across geopolitical and policy research, structured English-language writing, and cross-border education support.

Experience

Independent policy & strategy research

2024– · Independent · Japan / Remote

Desk research and analytical writing on semiconductor competition, economic coercion, supply chains, and regional order.

Independent admissions adviser

2024– · Independent · Remote

Programme research, requirements checking, application timelines, document preparation support, and decision-focused guidance.

English instructor & academic writing support

2020– · Independent

IELTS, GRE, academic English, argumentative writing, and interview preparation.

TOEFL instructor

Human Academy

English instruction for junior-high, high-school, and university students.

Intercollegiate debate coach

2022.07–2023.05 · College debate teams

Argument construction, evidence use, rebuttal, speech organization, and public speaking.

Education

Osaka University · Osaka School of International Public Policy

Master's candidate · April 2025–March 2027 (expected)

Ritsumeikan University · Graduate School of International Relations

Graduate coursework · September 2024–March 2025

Arizona State University

B.S. in Public Service and Public Policy · 2020–2024

Hainan University

Bachelor of Management in Public Administration · 2020–2024

Skills, languages & tests

Policy and geopolitical desk research; evidence and literature synthesis; English analytical writing; academic communication; IELTS/GRE/TOEFL instruction; application planning and document support.

Chinese: native · English: IELTS 7.5 · Japanese: JLPT N2

GRE General Test: 328